Re: Audi AG v. Ego Speed, Inc. et al., Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-9492-LGS
Letter Motion Requesting Adjournment of Initial Pretrial Conference

Dear Judge Schofield:

Our firm represents Plaintiff Audi AG (“Plaintiff”) in the above-captioned case, and we are writing, pursuant to Your Honor’s Individual Rule B(3), to request a sixty (60) day adjournment of the telephonic initial pretrial conference currently scheduled for February 5, 2025, at 4:20 p.m (i.e., until on or after April 4, 2025, or another date that best suits the Court), and a corresponding extension of the deadline for the paperwork required in anticipation thereof (currently set for January 29, 2025). Plaintiff has actively been attempting to serve all Defendants. Additionally, Plaintiff was recently contacted by a representative of all Defendants, and is currently exploring if an out-of-court resolution can be achieved. Accordingly, an adjournment will permit time for service to be consummated, and for the parties to further discuss an amicable resolution of this dispute, thereby potentially conserving the time and resources of the parties, as well as this Court.

This is Plaintiff’s first request for any adjournment. Defendants, through their representative, agree to the instant request, although they have not yet been formally served or entered any appearance. No schedule has been entered in this case, and as such, no other deadlines will be impacted by the proposed adjournment.

We thank the Court for its time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

EPSTEIN DRANGEL LLP
